```
a4(a1 + exp(x0))*(a5 + tanh(a3x0*x0(a2 + x0)))
        a1 = -1.14, a2 = -0.69035^{+0.273(39.5\%)}_{-0.273(39.5\%)}, \text{a3} = 0.566188^{+0.119(21.0\%)}_{-0.119(21.0\%)}, \quad \text{a4} = 0.986698^{+0.00056(0.0568\%)}_{-0.00056(0.0568\%)},
                                                                                                                                                   Candidate #12
        a5 = 2.32613^{+0.106(4.56\%)}_{-0.106(4.56\%)}
                                                                                                       \chi^2/NDF = 1.89/5, RMSE = 0.04533, R2 = 0.9946
                                                                                                                                                 Best-fit
 3.0
                                                                                                                                                a2 Up (+1\sigma)
                                                                                                                                                a2 Down (-1\sigma)
                                                                                                                                                Data
 2.5
 2.0
 1.5
 1.0
 0.5
                                                                                                                                                                          Data – Fit
Uncertainty
    0
-0.5
1.02
    1
0.98
                                       1
                                                                        2
                                                                                                        3
```